I don't know what's right but I know what is wrong and I can't seem to make much sense of what I see around

Maybe you are right... 'just close your eyes'
Maybe you can never really know so soon
maybe that's the way it should be

I'm pretty sure I'm not the only one who doesn't know
What the fuck is going on
I'm pretty sure I'm not the only one who doesn't know
What the fuck is going on

All we ever seem to find is another shade of grey
So take control and save your soul and you might see
maybe that's the way it should be

I'm pretty sure I'm not the only one who doesn't know
What the fuck is going on
I'm pretty sure I'm not the only one who doesn't know
What the fuck is going on

All we ever need to feel is that we understand

I don't know what's right but I know what is wrong
You can never explain to me the truth tonight
maybe that's the way it should be

I'm pretty sure I'm not the only one who doesn't know
What the fuck is going on

Running away

How did you go from perfect stranger
To indispensable?
Lowered my guard, I've taken too many punches
Hanging on to promises
Empty promises

Running away
I'm running away
Running away

Just like a drug running through my veins
I can never get enough of you and the way you use to make me feel
Now we sit here jaded
Something's faded

Running away
I'm running away
Running away
Running away

Maybe I should remember
I've been down this road before
Maybe just like the film I'm walking through a sliding door

On the road

I can almost feel the horizon
And I hope not to be disappointed again
Disappointed again

I'm on the road
Yearning for a place where I belong
Until I find my home
The only way I know is on the road

There's no turning back
Look at what you see around you
And believe whatever you want to
Don't analyze the devil you know

I'm on the road
Yearning for a place where I belong
Until I find my home
The only way I know is on the road

Settle down, settle down,
Settle down, settle down

She Dancer

To meet somebody like you
A chance so unexpected here
To fall for you with all I am
Leaves me feeling insecure
An encounter to remember take a chance

She dancer She may be the love of my life
And all I really know is her name
She smiles and she makes me believe her again
Nothing in this world can compare
And I can pretend that she'll love me again
She dancer she may be the love of my life

I wait for you with open arms
Wait for you to come my way
Whenever I'm feeling alone
I think of all the plans we made
And make believe that you never went away

She dancer She may be the love of my life
And all I really know is her name
She smiles and she makes me believe her again
Nothing in this world can compare
And I can pretend that she'll love me again
She dancer she may be the love of my life

All I can do is watch you leaving me and all I have is what you leave me with A glimpse of love a golden memory
Now the sky is all bruised and it's love we must choose
When there's so much to lose there's always much to gain
Do you believe in love
Do you believe in love
To meet somebody like you.
